

I support Satellite radio because of the services it has as you travel over the country, with weather updates, news, and the music you can select from, which would not be available if your depended only on radio from the area. I am willing to pay for this service, and do not think you have the right to do away with it!Pat Van Meter